SECTION 17(B) OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

Winmax Trading Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries and/or affiliates Winmax Media, Winmax IS, Uptic.com bnettv.com and Sapphire Media, LLC (hereafter referred to collectively as “Winmax”) prepares and/or assists others in preparing or editing and/or publishing oral and written information on selected companies (the “Profiled Companies”) and/or their securities (the “Securities”) in various contexts, including but not limited to corporate and business profiles, summaries, reports, and press releases (hereafter referred to as the “Corporate Information”) through various methods including but not limited to: (a) facsimile; (b) email; (c) mail and courier; (d) world wide web, including but not limited to Winmax’s websites at www.uptic.com, www.winmaxmedia.com, www.winmaxis.com, www.winmaxtradinggroup.com, www.bnetttv.com, and www.sapphiremediallc.com (“the Websites”); and (e) personal contact at trade shows, business luncheons, seminars and/or meetings. The Corporate Information may be disseminated to broker-dealers, members of the general public, and the financial community (collectively the “Recipients”) at the direction of the Profiled Companies and should be used by the Recipients for informational purposes only.

Winmax and/or its affiliates and representatives may receive cash and/or compensation in the Securities in connection with services that Winmax may perform on behalf of the Profiled Companies. Should Winmax receive compensation in the form of Securities of the Profiled Companies, Winmax may have a potential or actual conflict of interest with the Recipients as well as with the Profiled Companies.

Winmax does not express any opinions, recommendations or viewpoints regarding the Profiled Companies or the Securities, and has not conducted due diligence of any data or information contained in the Corporate Information. The Corporate Information is based solely upon data and information provided by the Profiled Companies and Winmax does not endorse, independently verify, or assert the truthfulness, completeness, accuracy or reliability of the Corporate Information. Winmax conducts no due diligence of any type of the Profiled Companies or the Securities. Recipients should not rely on the data or information contained in the Corporate Information in making an investment decision and should conduct their own research of the Profiled Companies. The Recipients should not assume that material changes have not occurred since the publication and/or dissemination of the Corporate Information. Each of the Recipients should consult with his or her legal, accounting, tax and financial advisers regarding any investment in the Profiled Companies or the Securities.

Winmax is not a registered investment advisor or registered securities broker dealer and no information contained within the Corporate Information should be construed as investment advice or as a solicitation to offer, purchase or sell the Securities. The Securities may be thinly traded and not listed on any national securities exchange and involve an extremely high degree of risk. Should the Securities be penny stocks, they will be subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's penny stock rules, and as such, any investment in such Securities will involve a high degree of risk and it may be difficult for any investor or Shareholder to resell the Securities. An investment in the Securities could result in the loss of some or all of an investment.

Recipients should (with the assistance of their legal and financial advisors) review SEC filings regarding the Profiled Companies that are SEC reporting issuers. These SEC filings are available for review at www.sec.gov. Recipients should review investment guides that are available at the same SEC website and the National Association of Security Dealers website at www.nasd.com.

Statements contained in the Corporate Information that are not historical facts are forward looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties and may be identified by the use of terminology such as "believes", "expects", "may", "will", "should", or "anticipates". Such statements should be read as being applicable to all related forward looking statements wherever they appear in any of the Corporate Information. The actual results of a Profiled Company's operations, financial condition or other aspects of its business could differ materially from those discussed in the Corporate Information.

The issuance of the Securities to Winmax may cause shareholders and/or investors of the Profiled Companies to experience immediate and substantial dilution of their holdings and/or investments in the Profiled Companies. Future securities issuances to Winmax for services may also result in a reduction of (i) the book value or market price of the Profiled Companies' securities; (ii) shareholder voting power; and (iii) each shareholder's proportionate ownership of any Profiled Company.

Section 17(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 requires that any person that uses the mails to publish, give publicity to, or circulate any publication or communication that describes a security in return for consideration received or to be received directly or indirectly from an issuer, underwriter, or dealer, must fully disclose the type of consideration (i.e. cash, free trading stock, restricted stock, stock options, stock warrants) and the specific amount of the consideration.
